Sen. Gilbert pleased to see St. Clair County agency receive grant

LANSING – Sen. Jud Gilbert, R-Algonac, is pleased to announce that local residents will now have additional opportunities for education and job training assistance thanks to a state grant.

The Macomb-St. Clair Workforce Development Board, Inc. is receiving $54,000 from the Michigan Department of Labor & Economic Growth.

“This grant will give some residents in St. Clair County another helping hand in preparing themselves to be part of the workforce,” Gilbert said.

The grant will be used for individuals participating in the Work First Program, which assists low-income residents in finding employment, reducing or eliminating their need for public assistance.
